Santorini History and Wine

Explore the island, its history and culture. Visit the historical site of Akrotiri with a private guide. Learn the history of the amazing civilization, their culture and advanced engineering preserved by the ashes of the eruption, that gave the island its current landscape.

Visit the museum to see artifacts discovered during the excavation and admire the life size replicas of the real frescoes at the Santozeum. Sample the local wines and learn how the Wine Trade has played an important role on the islands story and culture for thousands of years.

Duration: approx. 6 hours

Discover Santorini

Enjoy the highlights of the island and its postcard views of blue domed churches and white washed villages perched on the cliff tops.

Taste the unique local wine, produced from some of the oldest vines in Europe. Stroll through the maze like cobble stone alleys of a picturesque village, where the culture and history of the locals is found in its architectural blend.

Enjoy the intense blue of the Aegean waters or just sample the local gastronomy by the sea-shore at one of the local beaches or in a quaint square covered with flowered canopies scenting the air.

Duration: approx. 6 hours.

Santorini History & Archeological Site

Discover the human history of the island, with a stroll through the past on a tour of the archeological site of Akrotiri with a private guide.

Learn the story of the islanders and the cultural and engineering greatness of a civilization preserved by the ashes of the last big eruption.

Visit the museum to see a part of the artifacts discovered during the excavation, that remain today a testament of time, travel and the everyday life journey of the people who inhabited the island.

Duration: approx. 4 hours

Santorini Culture

Visit a local winery to taste the local wines and appreciate some of the oldest vines in Europe and the peculiar way vines here are weaved close to the ground, to protect them from the winds.

Hear the amazing history of the island and its people from your knowledgeable private guide as you walk through the excavated city of Akrotiri.

Attend a musical performance where the sounds of ancient musical instruments weaves the present and the past in a melody of time.

Duration: approx. 5 hours

Wine Tour

One of the treasures of Santorini is its wine industry. It started in antiquity and still maintains a strong presence today, with many local wines being awarded international distinction.

Visit 2 of the islands family owned wineries, home to some of the oldest vines in Europe, for an odyssey in taste and rich history of the local wine making trade. Explore the unique vine fields and follow with a visit to a local distillery where you can taste “raki” a traditional drink produced from twice distilling grape pomace in copper alembics.
